Gretchen Nymoen
2/21/31 to 2/2/16

Gretchen grew up in Buffalo, New York, and graduated from Colby Jr. College, New London, New Hampshire. She was employed as a secretary. In 1962 she moved to San Francisco, worked in advertising and in an Ophthalmologist's office and in 1965 she moved to San Jose and became assistant to the Golf Professional at Riverside Golf Course where she worked until 1973. Gretchen was a fine golfer and traveled extensively playing golf. She was married in 1970 and widowed in 1995. There were no children.

Don grew up in Minneapolis, Minn. and graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1951. He then married and moved to Schenectady, N.Y. with General Electric and remained on the East Coast until 1966 when he came to San Jose with the G.E. Nuclear Power Division. Don retired in 1986 and lost his wife in 2004. He has two daughters and five grandchildren.

Don was one of the earliest residents to move into SRC on December 27, 2004. Gretchen moved in during early January 2005 where they soon met and were married in November 2005. Golf is a prime interest for both of them. They also enjoy music, bridge and travel.
