

Ellen Verdi

January 31, 1942 to June 18, 2022

Ellen was born and grew up in Boston, MA and got a BS in legal studies at Fisher College there. She met her husband while she was in college and he was getting an engineering degree at Northeastern U. They moved to Toronto, Canada, for four years and then to Saratoga in 1985. In 1995 they moved to Campbell and had a second home in Carmel by the Sea, where she moved in 2005 after her husband died. She came to SRC in March 2014.

Ellen worked for a law firm in Boston and went to Harvard Law School at night to get a broker's real estate license. She was also a licensed broker in Saratoga where she worked for Grubb & Ellis. She has one daughter and two granddaughters who live nearby in Cupertino. Ellen's hobbies are bridge, racket ball, reading and travel. She has toured most of Canada, much of Europe plus Singapore, Thailand, Japan, New Zealand. Her favorite is Italy, as her husband is a relative of the famous composer Giuseppe Verdi. While living in Carmel, she was a member of the Carmel Foundation which, among other projects, provided tours for visitors to the area.
