

Darliene Olson

December 7, 1932 - April 21, 2012

Darliene was born in Grants Pass, OR and moved to Roseburg to attend high school, where she met her husband Frank. They married after his first year at Oregon State U. and she went to work while he got his BS degree. Frank went on to get his MS and PhD from Stanford University in Mechanical Engineering while working at Sylvania in Mountain View. The family then moved to Boston for three years while he served in the Air Force to fulfill his ROTC commitment. They then returned to Palo Alto where they remained for 40 years while Frank worked in the microwave industry.

They have three daughters and two grandsons. The family loved camping, biking, sailing, tennis and traveling. Darliene's favorites were three trips to Africa. She was a Scout leader and after the girls finished school, she managed a boutique dress shop in Los Altos. Her favorite things are reading, cooking and traveling. Frank died March 17, 2011.

Darliene moved Assisted Living.

Darliene died April 21, 2012.
