

June Hoch Clodius

June 27, 1930 - Sept. 13, 2014

June was born and raised in Englewood, CO and attended the University of Colorado at Boulder as a voice student before transferring to private tutors. She sang both solos and oratorios throughout her life. She performed in light opera and as a soloist in church choirs. She was also a teacher and counselor through Young Life, Stonecroft Christian Ministries and through many neighborhood bible studies groups. She married and had two children and came with her family to Palo Alto in 1962 where her first husband got a graduate degree in education at Stanford University.

They then moved to San Jose where he was a high school counselor. He died in 1997 after 47 years of marriage. In 2004 she remarried Jerry Clodius, who lost his wife in 2003. The two couples had been friends for 40 years and their children had grown up together.

She and Jerry enjoyed many Elderhostel trips in the US and Europe, a favorite being a river trip on the Rhine in Germany. They moved to SRC in 2012.
