

May Gould January 25, 1923 - June 28, 2006

May was born in Luninets, Poland, emigrating to the US with her family as an infant. She was raised in New York and Salt Lake City. Her college education was in social welfare at UC Berkeley, followed by an MA in psychology at San Jose State U. She met her husband, Dr. Norman Gould, through her brother who served with him in WWII. They married in 1947.

Besides being a homemaker and mother of three children, she worked for 13 years as a parole agent for the California Youth Authority. Both she and her husband served on the board of Chai House Retirement Community and Jewish Family Service. Their home for the last 47 years has been here in Saratoga. They have three grandchildren
