

Janet Cazel
1921 to 10/15/2013

Janet was born in San Francisco and raised in Berkeley and Washington D.C. After her return to San Francisco she graduated from George Washington High School. She then attended UC Davis, then UC Berkeley, graduating with a BS in home economics and a teaching credential. After graduation, she entered the WAACS and got her basic training in Des Moines, IA, then served as a Tech. Sergeant in Paris, France, quartered in hotels along the Champs-Elysees. She has happy memories of Paris and travels through Switzerland.

A teaching career began at Antioch High School where she met and married a fellow teacher, Bob Randall. Five years later they moved to Milpitas, San Jose, and Campbell. Following Bob's untimely death, Janet acquired a librarianship credential and joined the Campbell Union High School faculty for 25 years. She also moved to Saratoga, where she later joined several volunteer activities: the Saratoga Senior Center, the Adult Care Center, the Book Go Around, and the San Jose Historical Museum,. Her volunteer work was interspersed with foreign travel.

Janet is now living in Assisted Living.
