

Jack Ericson
12/12/26 - 7/21/12

Jack was born and raised in New Rockford, ND. At age 17 he volunteered to serve in the Army where he was trained as a Japanese interpreter. After military service in the Aleutians, he went back to the University of North Dakota and to medical school, met Betty, and they were married in 1949. He finished his MD at the University of Southern California. He then rejoined the Armed Forces as a Medical Corps officer and served in Germany for two years. Following his career in the Armed Services, he had a general practice for 15 years in Morgan Hill, then spent 13 years as an anesthesiologist in Minneapolis, MN. He also participated in a medical teaching program in China. After Jack retired in 1985, he and Betty moved to the Monterey Bay area before coming to SRC. Jack was a sports fan, enjoyed playing golf and watching football on TV. They had one daughter and four granddaughters.
