

Dee Jordan

Died: May 14, 2024

Dee is a native Californian from the Central valley. She grew up in Oakdale and attended Modesto Jr. College where she received an A. A. degree in business. She met her husband Edward when he was stationed at Castle Air Force Base. They have two children and four grandchildren all living in Saratoga. In 1966, after Ed retired from the Air Force, they moved to Saratoga. After his Air Force career, Edward was involved with several start ups in Silicon Valley. He passed away in 2000.

Dee and her husband enjoyed traveling, mostly in Europe. They particularly liked Italy where they returned several times. Dee has been a member of the Montalvo Service Group since 1981 and the Saratoga Foothill Club since 1986. She enjoys cooking and gardening in her spare time.
