

Kay Hardt-Lerman

May 9, 1925 - May 23 - 2008

Kay grew up in Mountain View, CA. She met her husband (an Englishman) through friends. They married and moved to Washington where he started a manufacturing business. After 12 years, she was thankful to return to California where they built a home in Saratoga. They had two children and five grandchildren.

Kay loved being a homemaker but also has become quite interested in the stock market, politics, philosophy, and psychology. She has taken many courses in these subjects and is a great reader.

Kay has been a worldwide traveler and some of her fondest memories are of visits to relatives in Dubrovnik. Kay came from a Croatian family and speaks the language fluently. Bali, the Philippines and Hong Kong are other favorites.
