

ROSALIE GREENE
5-24-20 to 6-14-10

Rosalie was born in Boston, MA and raised in Washington, DC. After high school she attended the American University in DC, where she majored in Social Sciences. She then attended the School of Social Work at Catholic University for one year. After graduation she started her career as a medical social worker in DC. While in college she met Barnet, and they were married in 1949. They raised two daughters and lived in Maryland for almost 40 years. During their years in Maryland, they were actively involved as volunteers in fund-raising and promoting the building of several homes for the aged. They moved to San Jose in 1986 and to SRC in 2007