Dottie Erskine

Dottie grew up various parts of Pennsylvania where her father was a Presbyterian minister. She attended Acadia University outside of Philadelphia, and served as a case worker for the Red Cross following her graduation.

She joined her family, then living in Rochester, NY for vacations and met her husband Bill at a fraternity dance at the U. of Rochester where he grew up. They married in 1944 when he returned from service as a Naval aviator in the South Pacific. They then lived in the Philadelphia area before moving to the West Coast in 1963 when Bill became VP and division manager of Container Corp. of America. He retired in 1981 and died June 11, 2007.

The Erskines have two children and one granddaughter. They were enthusiastic golfers and traveled to many courses in the US and overseas to play golf. Dottie was a career volunteer and served as surgical hostess at Good Samaritan Hospital for 36 years.
