

Jean Murphy
12/15/36 to 3/10/11

Jean was born in San Antonio, TX and educated at Randolph-Macon Women's College, VA. She majored in history and subsequently taught fifth and sixth grades. She met her husband Bill while attending high school in Paris, France where both were with military families. They married in 1961 and as they had six children, Jean became a full time homemaker. She did get involved in many activities at the military bases where they lived. In 50 years of marriage, they moved 30 times. They lived in England and Scotland, as well as six states and four places in CA.

Jean also found time to play the piano and bridge, to crochet and swim. They have nine grandchildren.