

Anne Brandenburg

Moved to Villa Fontana Deceased May 2020

Anne was born in Alton, Illinois and grew up in Mattoon. During World War II she worked for the Air Force in Indianapolis, where she met her husband, who was an Air Force Officer. They lived in Indiana, Illinois, Hawaii, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Germany, as he spent 20 years in the military. They have two children, four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

They came to Los Gatos in 1965 and lived in the same house for 42 years. He was a professor at Santa Clara University and Anne got a BA degree there in Humanities, an MA in Education and taught reading at West Valley College. Her husband died in 2003 and Anne later moved to Rinconada Hills for nine years until she moved to SRC in December 2016. She has gone to fitness classes at Saratoga Senior Center for 25 years! She has also volunteered at her children's schools, at Happy Dragon Thrift Shop and at El Camino Hospital. Anne enjoyed needlepoint, sewing and bridge. She and her husband traveled widely around the world, and her favorite places were Vienna and Paris.
