

Dick Lavenstein

11-4-1927 to 8-13-2022

Dick was born in New York City, went to schools in New Rochelle, NY and graduated from the U. of Virginia majoring in business. He worked in New York City and married Emmy in 1957. They relocated to San Mateo in 1960 when Dick was promoted to a position in San Francisco. He got into the commercial real estate business in the early 60s and remained active as a developer/investor on the mid-peninsula until retiring in 2004. Dick and Emmy raised three children and lived in the same house for more than 44 years before coming to SRC in January 2005. Their four grandchildren live in the Bay Area. Emmy passed away on May 13, 2006.

Dick has been a great hiker with the Sierra club, and helped start the Monday Walkers group at SRC. He and Emmy made many hikes in the western US and -abroad.
