

Ann Weiler
8-23-1927 to 12-23-2020

Ann lived for much of her life in La Canada in Southern California. She was educated at Stanford where she majored in elementary education. Ann then worked as a kindergarten teacher and later became the mother of four.

She and her late husband, a lawyer, traveled widely, including Viet Nam, China, Soviet Union, Australia, New Zealand, Europe and other countries.

Ann recently moved to the Bay Area to be near her daughter and family who live in Los Gatos. Her other children live in Arizona, Connecticut and Southern California, but Ann admits to having a preference for this area.
