

Jim Milliken

8-19-1923 to 9-5-2015

Jim lived in Fremont, NE through high school. He has interesting tales to tell about his family's experiences in Fremont way back to 1860, including his grandfather's exploits as Sheriff of Dodge County, NE. Jim started his college education at Swarthmore College near Philadelphia before serving in the Army for four years in Washington, D. C., the Philippines and Japan. He continued his education as an English major at Grinnell College, IA, then did graduate work in Journalism at Northwestern University, IL. His professional career progressed from radio business, to public relations, to becoming a successful real estate broker for 45 years both in Southern CA and the Bay Area.

Most recently he lived with his late wife in Menlo Park. He is pleased that his five children live on the West Coast. An avid reader, Jim has a fine book collection. He also has an extensive collection of paper weights.
