Norman Alexander
8/4/1930 to 3/2/1922

Muriel is from Manchester, New Hampshire, where her father and grandfather served in the state legislature. She also lived in Connecticut, Chicago and Ohio before attending business college in Boston and working as a legal secretary. She moved on to Washington, DC where she met and married Norman. They lived there five years, then moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma for eight years and eventually spent 36 years in the Los Angeles area. They have four daughters and 11 grandchildren, and moved to SRC to be near one daughter. Muriel loves cooking and baking, books, classical music and opera. For 20 years she was actively involved in the Mary Duque Guild of Children's Hospital of Los Angeles which held a fund-raising debutante's ball in which her daughters were presented. She has also been active in the Stephen Ministry at their church.

Norman is a native of Oklahoma and a graduate in business of the University of Oklahoma at Norman. After serving two years in the Korean War, he returned to the Oklahoma University for a law degree and then took a job in Washington, DC at the IRS Chief Counsel's office. He also earned a LLM in tax law at George Washington University. The family moved to Tulsa where Norman worked for an oil company, and then to Los Angeles where he joined Occidental Petroleum, retiring in 1990.

They lived in Northridge, and Norman's interests were golf, travel, investment club and gardening. Their favorite trips were to Machu Picchu, Peru; Italy; repeats to Scotland, England and Hong Kong to visit a daughter who has lived there 16 years.
