

Gloria Montgomery

September 28, 1928 - August 22, 2009

Gloria was born in Chicago; later her family moved to Los Angeles where she graduated from high school. She attended Los Angeles City College, majoring in business administration. She worked for a number of years for an advertising agency and also for IBM. Eventually she joined the staff of the San Jose Mercury News and worked there for many years, specializing in advertising.

She recalls many happy days skiing and gardening as well as taking care of two beloved dachshunds. She is still fond of reading and needlework, and she loves to travel. She and her late husband (a contractor of long standing in Santa Clara Valley) lived in Los Gatos for 35 years. They traveled to many parts of the world, especially the South Pacific, the Caribbean and Europe. She is looking forward to future cruises.

Gloria was a volunteer for Eastfield Ming Quong projects in Los Gatos for 15 years. She has a special liking for and owns several ERTE art objects.
