

Helen Perry

November 24, 1931 to November 14, 2020

Helen was born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, where she grew up and graduated from high school. She went to the University of St. Catherine in St. Paul for a degree in Nursing and then specialized as a nurse anesthetist. She met her husband on a blind date in St. Paul and after their marriage in 1953, they moved to San Francisco so he could attend Hastings Law School while she worked at Ft. Miley. They moved to San Jose in 1957 and then Saratoga where she lived for 51 years. They had three children and have seven grandchildren. Her husband died in 2002.

Helen took up gemology, got a graduate degree and had her own jewelry business for a few years. Her favorite trip was to Bangkok, Thailand. She plays bridge, has been active at her church and enjoys her dog Gigi, a coton poodle.
