

Elizabeth Miller

Died: March 9, 2024

Elizabeth was born in Wooster, Ohio, 50 miles south of Cleveland, and went to Ohio University in Athens in southeastern Ohio, where she got a BA in education. She met her husband-to-be at church in Wooster, and since he was in the Army, they moved to El Paso, Texas, where she taught school. After two years they moved to Mansfield, Ohio, and then he joined IBM and they lived in Dearborn, Michigan; Lexington, Kentucky; Worthington, Ohio; Voorsten, Netherlands; a suburb of Baltimore, Maryland, and finally they came to Saratoga in 1973.

They have four children and three grandchildren, and Elizabeth was involved as a school volunteer. Then she worked for Syntex in the legal department for more than three years and when Syntex left, she transferred to Hewlett-Packard and Agilent Technologies where she worked for 14 years. She was also active in the Republican Women's Federation and the Cupertino DeOro Club.

Her husband retired in 1993 and died in 2003. After so many moves, they were not eager to travel. But following the death of her sister-in-law in 2005, Elizabeth traveled with her brother each year until he became ill. Their favorite trip was a cruise of all the Hawaiian Islands. Elizabeth is keeping her house in Saratoga and enjoying her life at SRC.
