

D

David Nierenberg
January 9, 1918 - June 17, 2008

David was raised in Philadelphia. He attended the U. of Pennsylvania where he majored in economics. He went on to Yale Law School and Harvard Business School before serving in the Navy in WWII for four years in the Pacific theater. He returned to New York City where he joined a law firm with which he practiced law for 45 years both in NYC and Chappaqua, NY. He married and had three children. His first wife died in 2000 and he married Jeff in 2001.

David was very active in his community, serving on many boards and committees, coaching, founding the Chappaqua Chamber Orchestra and guiding it for 36 years. He was an accomplished violinist and also played piano in jazz bands. He had six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.