

Paul Welling Horsley
March 2, 1925 to November 12, 2017

Paul was born in Brigham City, Utah. When he was 16, the family moved to San Luis Obispo. In WWII Paul served in the Army in the Pacific, spent a year in the Occupation Army in Japan and was discharged in 1946. He attended the University of Utah for two years and then Stanford for two years, graduating in Industrial Engineering. He was employed by an insurance company in Seattle, then transferred to Portland, where he met Fonia who was employed by the same company.

Then he was transferred to San Francisco, and they were married a year later and moved to Burlingame. Paul became a CPA and earned the highest score possible on the CPA test, which brought him the Forbes award. He then joined a large accounting firm which took them to Los Angeles for 30 years. They have one son and three grandsons which drew them back north for his retirement in 1985. He continued to consult for organizations and governments around the world.

Paul enjoyed his family foremost, then golf, tennis and photography. He loved to read, and enjoyed traveling. He was also always involved in church work. Since moving to SRC in 2005, he has offered his expertise to the Finance Committee.
