

Helga Hardy

April 5, 1931 - November 25, 2011

Helga grew up on her father's farm in Etzin near Berlin, Germany. She later attended boarding school in Potsdam. She was trained as a physical therapist in Berlin and worked in that capacity in Germany, England, and after she emigrated to Canada in 1955, and the US in 1958. She met Ken at a tennis club in Montreal. While their two children were in high school and they lived in Acton, MA, she got a degree in graphic design from the Massachusetts College of Art. Traveling, hiking, dancing and art were her favorite activities. She also wrote a book -- "Helga's Journey - Germany 1931-53" which is in our SRC library. She is also survived by two granddaughters.
