

Bill Kelso

March 7, 1931 - August 4, 2006

Bill is a Bay Area native and has lived here most of his life. He attended Menlo College and served in the Air Force for ten years during and after the Korean War. He then worked for Pan American Airlines on the ground crew, retiring in 1982. Never having married, he cooked for himself and then spent ten years cooking for the priests at St. Matthew's Church in San Mateo. While in the service, he spent three years in Germany and traveled throughout Europe, continuing to travel while with Pan American. His only brother and wife live in San Jose and have five sons to whom Bill has enjoyed playing uncle, as well as great-uncle to his grand-nieces and nephews.
